

"PLEASE ACCEPT MY SINCEREST THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU have done for me and my family. Words can never express how grateful we are to you and your associates."

Thank you notes like these from Jim Lynch's clients are found across the walls of his office. "This is why we fight so hard for our clients," he says proudly. "Our efforts can change lives."

Lynch has turned this drive and passion into great success in the courtroom as a personal injury trial lawyer, which resulted in him being named to the 2008 Super Lawyers® list. For example, when he was just 35, to the surprise of a seasoned adversary, Lynch declined an insurance companies' offer of $200,000 and took a difficult automobile accident case to trial, recovering $4.5 million for his seriously injured client. Lynch again made the news when he turned down a pretrial offer of $110,000 and attained a seven-figure verdict for the family of a woman killed by a hit-and-run driver. And once more, he turned down a pretrial offer of $50,000 and went on to win a multimillion-dollar verdict for a seriously injured minivan passenger.

"I joined Lynch Law Firm because of his reputation as a trial lawyer," says attorney Michael S. Rosenberg, who handles workers' compensation, PIP arbitrations and criminal matters at Lynch Law Firm. "Some people are born trial lawyers, and he has the innate ability to see the big picture and paint that picture for jurors."

Lynch is the fourth generation of Lynch family trial lawyers and is the managing partner at Lynch Law Firm, Bergen County's personal injury powerhouse. Some of his high-profile verdicts and settlements have been published in The Association of Trial Lawyers of America Law Reporter, The New York Law Journal, the New Jersey Law Journal, the New Jersey Jury Verdict Reporter, the New York Jury Verdict Reporter, The Journal News, The Star-Ledger, the Bergen Record and The Daily Observer.

Lynch is a published author and a frequent speaker in the field of personal injury litigation. He is a member of the prestigious Million Dollar Advocates Forum and was recently appointed to the board of governors for the Association of Trial Lawyers of America-New Jersey.

The firm's practice focuses on cases involving accident victims with serious injury, including construction accidents, medical malpractice and auto accidents in both New Jersey and New York.
